

Making Sense of the Crisis

Planet: Critical!

Rachel Donald – climate corruption journalist and the creator of the “Planet: Critical” podcast – will give her view on why we are destroying the Earth and what can be done about it. Having spent over two years talking to economists, scientists, philosophers, and climate activists, she has gathered a unique perspective on the crises facing humanity. We will need her insights to get out of the mess we are in.

When: March 22, 2023, at 17:10

Where: OST, Rapperswil, Aula 4.101

Registration: ost.ch/planetcritical

Rachel's talk will be followed by a panel discussion with:
Graeme Maxton, economist, author and former Secretary General of the Club of Rome

Irmis Seidl, professor, director of Economics and Social Sciences, Swiss Federal Institute for Forest, Snow and Landscape Research WSL

Elimar Frank, professor of Energy Management and Sustainability, OST – Ostschweizer Fachhochschule

Rolf Wüstenhagen, professor of Management of Renewable Energies, University of St. Gallen

Planet: Critical

planetcritical.com

Moderation:

Henrik Nordborg, Programme Director Renewable Energies and Environmental Engineering, OST – Ostschweizer Fachhochschule