Precision Photonic Systems '22

This conference – positioned in the center of the “Photonics Valley” - aims to bring together scientists from photonics, microtechnology and electronics and offer an exchange platform with leading industries within the high tech fair W3+.

Topics

The topics cover future oriented fields of applications:
- Ultraprecision manufacturing
- Micro-optical elements: design, fabrication, applications
- Sensors and systems for automotive, bio, diagnostics, health, ...
- Miniaturized photonic systems for industrial applications
- Design, assembly, packaging and testing of photonic systems
- Electronics and photonics integration
- Integrated electro-optical systems
- Nano-metrology

Sessions

- Precision Optics Generation
- Photonic Sensor Systems, and Applications
- Miniaturization of Photonic Systems
- Electronics for Miniaturized Systems

Keynote Speakers

- Jens Gottmann, Lightfab
- Marco Hanft, Zeiss
- Stephan Reichelt, Uni Stuttgart
- Samantha Paoletti, CSEM
- Reinhard Völkel, Süss MicroOptics
- Henning Schröder, Fraunhofer IZM
- Beat de Coi, Espros Photonics

For details, please see conference website

Papers

Presented papers will be published as extended 2-page abstracts and indexed by Google Scholar.

Poster Session

Selected papers will be presented within the W3+ exhibition area and enable direct contact and interaction with experts from industry and academia.

Social program:

Each participant is invited to the afternoon networking reception at the W3+ exhibition area. The entrance to the fair is included. Participation to the evening event must be booked separately.

Application for presentation

Please submit a ½ page abstract to the program committee. Indicate if you prefer oral or poster presentation. Papers will be selected by the program committee and the principal author will be informed. In case of acceptance, the author is obliged to submit an extended 2 page abstract (oral presentation) or to bring a poster (ca 1m x 1.5m, vertical) to the conference.
